FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

(Communication Enclosing Material)Description: Original notes re interview ofMilton B. Deas

5/10/10

B - Very energetic, not going to
'hands on' - would participate

Deviate from Righteous faith - policy - Rape case - Bunge spoke rather than Hostage Neg.

Never to his attention that anything was done illegally

Bunge was hard worker, worked irregular hours when necessary

- Not a micromanager - d/h keep track of B's hours

- Work Schedules: D - 9-5

Bunge - 9-5, but for operations, worked when necessary

- 1st watch - 11,12 - 7 D d/h work it often
, "surprise inspections"

- During 9-5 hrs, went to 2d fl. daily

- Everyone wanted to get involved in Wilson case

b6 - 4
b7C - 4

Bunge was responsible for directing invest. in after Q

Q D's role:

D accompanied [] on the beauty shop S.W.

D had roll call - d/h use unnecessary brutality, + would jeopardize successful operation. d/h want to weaken the case
get these "Dog faces"

d/h give ^{this} speech for Doyle Menter investigation

- why? timing. Dept. ^{had} rec'd complaints of police ^{prosecutors} ~~excessive~~ ^{aggressively} grabbing folks in investigation - flavor of it; was b/c officers were ^{off-street} killed

- Told D that his men weren't doing illegal stuff

- Asked Bunge? May have discussed who had been doing it...

discussed how D's men weren't doing it

D never rec'd c/o police using violence in interviews

Mr Andrew Wilson - one of the Wilsons grabbed for a bag. Bunge used physical force to prevent bag access

D was at home during arrest, was called in

19-cv-4048(FBI)-5274

- W had bandage across nose. B told D the story, about using force
- B never told D of any injuries W had
 - D would've wanted to know/check out W's injuries

D d/a remember a letter from hospital to Cusr. re W's injuries

D May have asked B did you beat this man cop?

brought on by media reports

B said not beat him up - (All D used to beat)

D heard that other cops may have beat up W

↳ the Wagon men left the busses, not Bunge or anyone from Area 2

↳ might have heard this from B or Area 2 detective

D didn't pass on any info to OPS, they never questioned D.

D never notified of complaints against Area 2 detective

so he never had any memory of looking at complaints, sustained or not

1939 - Army - 1947 - Left Army as Captain

773-846-7293

Call back if wife answers - d/a always take messages.

before, this had

This different than what seen on street - never happened became physical

used to being hollered, shout called, cuffed upside head
not typical police work

- OK to g street stuff, accepted part of life
traumatized, rec. this not normal

✓ is this really happening

✓ not so loud that people could overhear

not screaming, taking the punches

min

19-cv-4048(FBI)-5297

(1st 2 sessions - trying to formulate a way out of this

police would tell little details abt case each time he denied
who was there, who set it up, names [redacted]

never hit in face

1st, 2nd sessions very similar, threats of worse things coming

"gony area" - he said

Not 1st session, probably 3^d or 4th session when made ref. of taking him outside station -

end of 2nd - told going to another level next time

worried abt what going to do next

100-120 min → no windows so guessing atleast 100 min
3^d session - [redacted] → not synchronization

- in middle q room [redacted] guy
asked re: case [redacted]

19-cv-4048(FBI)-5298

- helped him understand "this isn't a joke"

✓ [redacted] for undetermined amt of time

✓ [redacted] no specific memory of punches/kicks in 3^d session

Breaking News: Ex-Officer Linked To Brutality Is Arrested

Category: In Brief

Summary: The New York Times

By Susan Saulny and Eric Ferkenhoff
October 22, 2008

CHICAGO, IL -- The authorities arrested a former Chicago police commander at his Florida home on Tuesday and charged him in a police brutality scandal that contributed to the emptying of Illinois' death row and that continues to resonate as one of the most racially charged chapters in the city's history.

The activities of the former commander, Jon Burge, 60, have been the subject of speculation for decades as scores of criminal suspects, many poor and black, have come forward saying they were routinely brutalized by Mr. Burge and the mostly white officers under his command on the South Side in the 1980s. Patrick J. Fitzgerald, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, said at a news conference that Mr. Burge "lied and impeded court proceedings" in 2003 when he provided false written answers to questions in a civil lawsuit that claimed he and other officers had abused inmates.

According to the indictment, Mr. Burge "well knew" he had participated in and was aware of "such events involving the abuse or torture of people in custody," including wrapping inmates' heads in plastic to make them feel as if they were suffocating. The statute of limitations on the suspected torture has expired, but Mr. Fitzgerald said Mr. Burge would still be held accountable. "There is no place for torture and abuse in a police station," the prosecutor said. "No person is above the law, and nobody — even a suspected murderer — is beneath its protection."

Calls for Mr. Burge's prosecution, which were sounded for years, grew louder after a 2006 report by special state prosecutors supported what dozens of inmates had said about being brutalized in jail. The report took more than four years and included more than 700 interviews. This year, the city approved a $20 million settlement with four former death row inmates who said they had been abused under Mr. Burge. After posting $250,000 bond, Mr. Burge left the federal courthouse in Tampa, Fla., on Tuesday. He said only that he planned to plead not guilty to two counts of obstruction of justice and one count of perjury. He is scheduled to be arraigned Monday in Chicago. If he is found guilty, Mr. Burge faces up to 20 years in prison for each obstruction of justice charge, five years for perjury and a $250,000 fine on each count.

The investigation is continuing, and may result in more indictments, officials in Mr. Fitzgerald's office said. "It's a start, after 25 years," said a defense lawyer, Flint Taylor, who has called for investigations of Mr. Burge and his officers for decades. "After years of struggle, maybe a modicum of justice will be attained here." The indictment could mean a great deal of work for prosecutors here, with defense lawyers expected to line up to file motions to overturn convictions during Mr. Burge's tenure. "I believe there are 40 to 50 cases where there was evidence of torture and the primary evidence against the defendant was a confession," said Andrea D. Lyon, a law professor at DePaul University and former head of the Illinois Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.

10/24/2008

Mayor Richard M. Daley was the Cook County state's attorney during the time of many of the accusations against Mr. Burge. "Obviously, the Burge case recalls a terrible chapter in our city's history," Mr. Daley said. "Some of the police behavior at that time was detestable, which is why steps have been put into place to ensure that the kinds of acts associated with Jon Burge never happen again." Monique Bond, a spokeswoman for the Chicago Police Department, which fired Mr. Burge in 1993, said the department supported the findings in the indictment.
