

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO :

Mr. Tolson ✓

DATE: 6/28/55

FROM :

L. B. Nichols ✓

SUBJECT:

Tolson _____ Boardman _____ Nichols ✓ Belmont _____ Harbo _____ Mohr _____ Parsons _____ Rosen _____
 Tamm _____ Sizoo _____ Winterrowd _____
 Tele. Room _____ Holloman _____
 Gandy _____

George Fishman, who is on the advising force of Warner Brothers Theaters, called to advise that Frank Casey, of their New York Office, is handling Jack Webb, of Dragnet fame, on his Eastern visit. Webb will be in Washington on 8/19/55, and is very desirous of seeing the Director. b6

I told Fishman that unfortunately the Director would be in a travel status at that time and would not be able to see Webb. [redacted] [redacted]

cc - Mr. Holloman
 Mr. Jones

LBN:fc
 (4)

RECORDED - 8

INDEXED - 8

21 JUL 1 1955

115 CRIME REC
 [signature]

Monroe to Moore memo
RE: "THE FBI"

that it is out-of-date, and volunteered to assist in preparing a script for a new, 1977 version.

Attached is a 10-page script entitled "Your FBI." It has been prepared by Mr. Hendricks in coordination with the Research Section and represents a color film of 20 minutes' duration.

This updated script for "The FBI" includes little of the film that was used in the 1963 and 1970 versions. Furthermore, it features entirely new narration. Mr. Hendricks has volunteered that he will arrange for Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., to record the narration without charge. In addition, from the extensive library of film available to him at Warner Brothers, he will locate some of the new film footage (for example, film of Washington-area monuments and other landmarks) needed to update this film. In addition, he is confident that music for use on the sound track of the film can be obtained at very nominal cost, and possibly at no cost to us whatsoever. (On the other hand, if the music were to be used in a film produced for Warner Brothers itself, a musicians' fee of some $7,000 would be involved.)

It will, however, be necessary for us to reimburse Warner Brothers for certain technical and laboratory costs incurred in updating this film. According to Mr. Hendricks' computations, these costs will total approximately $32,200. In order to remain within this cost figure, it will be necessary that the Bureau supply the new film footage of FBI facilities which the script requires. Assistance of personnel of both the Training Division and the Scientific and Technical Services Division will be required in obtaining such new film footage.

FBI Los Angeles

Date: 12/17/62

Transmit the following in _____ (Type in plain text or code)

Via AIRTEL

AIR MAIL

(Priority or Method of Mailing)

Mr. Tolson
Mr. Belmont
Mr. Mohr
Mr. Casper
Mr. Callahan
Mr. Conrad
Mr. DeLoach
Mr. Evans
Mr. Gale
Mr. Rosen
Mr. Sullivan
Mr. Tavel
Mr. Trotter
Tele. Room
Miss Holmes
Miss Gandy

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI (ATTENTION: MR. C. D. DE LOACH)

FROM: SAC, LOS ANGELES

RE: "PATTERN FOR ESPIONAGE" JACK WEBB TV SERIES
 "GENERAL ELECTRIC TRUE"
 WARNER BROTHERS
 RESEARCH MATTER

Re my phone call to Bureau 12/17/62.

On the late afternoon of 12/14/62 BILL L. HENDRICKS, Warner Brothers, telephonically advised that JACK WEBB had just completed a script "Pattern for Espionage", and that he wanted to start filming it on Wednesday, 12/19/62. I pointed out to HENDRICKS that this was a matter that would have to be referred to our Bureau headquarters, and I suggested that he might wish to take this up with the Bureau directly in view of his expressed interest in receiving an immediate reply. He stated that he preferred to forward the script to this office. I told him that we would refer it to Bureau headquarters.

The script, which bears the name of HAROLD JACK BLOOM, was received on the morning of 12/17/62 and deals entirely with an espionage plot which starts in Germany and in which most of the action takes place in New York City. The name of the Russian intelligence agent in the script is KARTYNOV.

b6
b7C

In the script an FBI Agent takes the place of an American Colonel who has been approached by the Russians to commit espionage, and

3 - Bureau (Enc. 1) (AIR MAIL)
 1 - Los Angeles

WGS:CM
 (4)

REC-18

DEC 19 1962

Sent

Per

Special Agent in Charge

CRIME RESEARCH

[REDACTED]

On this date, pursuant to Bureau instructions, I recontacted HENDRICKS and reiterated that these matters must go through the Bureau's headquarters in Washington, D. C., and not locally, and that his effort to rush this matter through was not appreciated. He was informed that no action would be taken by the Bureau except after a study of the script and the opportunity to make a decision. I informed him that, if necessary, proper recourse would be taken to protect the Bureau's good name.

HENDRICKS was apologetic, stating that WEBB had requested him to contact the Bureau; that he had previously been of the understanding that he should take such matters up with this office.

I pointed out to him that I had told him as recently as last Friday that these matters must be taken up with Bureau headquarters and had even suggested that he call Assistant Director DE LOACH in view of his expressed hurry.

He commented that WEBB is a "pushy guy" and might go ahead with the script regardless of the Bureau's decision. HENDRICKS stated that he had not read the script himself.

Script attached herewith. The Bureau is requested to advise of any action desired.

↓
L.A. Advised by Mr. [illegible] no further action lrl

DEC 14 3 52 PM

PATTERN FOR ESPIONAGE

Harold Jack Bloom

27936

FADE IN:

~~INTX~~ (FORMAT PROLOGUE)

~~WEBBZYZVDIIE~~

WEBB

In the United States today, ~~zhaxax~~ ~~axaxxaxxaxzaxzaxz~~ a disciplined corps of some 6,000 men are fighting a quiet, deadly battle against this country's enemies, foreign and domestic.
In the 20's, they were called "Feds." In the thirties, when they broke the ~~axaxaxaxaxax~~ underworld syndicates, they were called "G-Men." They are the special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the FBI, the an investigative arm of the Justice Dept.

(beat)

One of their strangest cases began at a sidewalk cafe in Communist East Berlin when a veteran, American Army ~~axaxaxax~~ colonel was asked to betray his country.

(beat)

For the next thirty minutes...

"Pattern for Espionage."

FADE OUT:

EXT: EAST BERLIN (STOCK)

DAY

To ESTABLISH...

WEBB'S VOICE

East Berlin, August, 1954.
Before the political wall between East and West became a stone wall.

WIPE TO:

EXT: SIDEWALK CAFE

DAY

SLOW PAN over passersby and people at tables.
American soldiers and civilians in evidence;
also Soviet uniforms.

WEBB'S VOICE

There was still travel between the two sectors in those days.
It was not uncommon for American tourists and servicemen to be seen in ~~xxxxxx~~ Soviet East Berlin.

HOLD ON COL. HARVEY MADISON, 47, showing several rows of campaign ribbons on his uniform, enjoying a stein of beer with an attractive young woman, ALICE ~~NAME~~ McHENRY, 32, who sips an aperitif.
MOVE IN SLOWLY TO TWO SHOT.

WEBB'S VOICE

Cel. Harvey Madison, attached to the American Army Forces in Berlin, was enjoying the role of guide for his niece, Alice McHenry, who had just arrived from New York on vacation. She was delighted at the news that Col. Madison had recently been notified ~~that~~ he was to be transferred back to the United States.

ALICE

Uncle Harvey, that's wonderful!
(stops herself) Or is it? Are you going to be out in Montana? Or the middle of the ~~Louisiana~~ swamps or something?

Louisiana

MADISON

(squints a wink) Unofficially...I expect to be within walking distance of Centrel Park South, Manhattan.

Lifts his beer in a punctuating toast. Her quick smile turns warm.

ALICE

Well it's about time your precious Army let you sign a separate peace.

MADISON

Oh it hasn't been too bad. I've been home on visits.

ALICE

Yeah. Two weeks every two years.
(smiles)

I can see Mom rushing for her roast-beef-and-yerkshire pudding recsipes and Dad yelling he hates horseradish.

MADISON

I think the only thing your father hates is chess. At least he plays like he does.

The pleasant exchange is interrupted as MAJOR XXX NIKOLI BRIN, a Red Army officer, approximately Madison's age, stops at their table with a broad smile.

ANOTHER ANGLE

BRIN

(Russian accent)

Major Madison! No, Colonel Madison, now. Full colonel,
I see.

Madison has risen, showing recognition.

MADISON

Nik?

~~Brin grins and nods as he pumps Madison's hand.~~

Brin smiles as he nods and pumps Madison's hand.
Madison turns to his ~~neice~~ neice.

MADISON

(con't)

Alice, this is Major Nikoli
Brin. ~~of the~~ He was Capt.
Brin when the Soviet Army met our boys in Germany in 1945.

(to him)

My neice, & Miss McHenry.

BRIN

~~My pleasure, Miss Henry.~~

A pleasure, Miss Henry.

(to Madison)

Please, I don't want to disturb you. I just had to...

MADISON

Nonsense. Sit down and have a ~~drink~~ beer.

As they sit.

THREE SHOT

MADISON

(to Alice)

This is probably the only Russian you'll ever meet who hates vodka.

She smiles at the enthusiasm of their reunion.
SNEAK MUSIC TO COVER their ad lib merriment.

WEBB'S VOICE

A chance meeting of friends whose different uniforms once fought side by side. Except that it was not chance. ~~Major~~ ~~Nikoli Brin was no longer an~~ ~~officer in the Red Army. He was~~ ~~now a special agent in the~~ ~~NWD, the international Soviet~~ ~~intelligence organization.~~

~~DISCLOSURE~~

MOVE SLOWLY INTO CLOSE UP OF Brin, ~~smiling~~ laughing wholesomely, smiling as he listens.

WEBB'S VOICE

(con't)

Nikoli Brin was no longer an officer in the Red Army. He was now a special agent in the NKVD, the international Soviet intelligence service.

DISSOLVE:

INT: ~~XXXX~~ HOTEL BAR BOOTH

NIGHT

~~INSERT~~

Brin's hands drawing a rough sketch of Manhattan on the back of a menu.

MED. BRIN

Typing with a snifter of brandy.
Preoccupied, ~~mostly his thoughts to the sketch.~~
WIDEN ANGLE as he reacts to Madison who ENTERS SHOT to sit opposite him. Madison smiles.

MADISON

My neice said we just wanted her to go to bed so that we could go on the town like a couple of middleaged romeos.

(beat)

She enjoyed the day, Nik. Said she was glad we ran into you.
So am I.

Brin does not return the expected smile; his expression remains heavy, as though he prepares for an unpleasant duty.

BRIN

You did not run into me, Harvey.
Our meeting was carefully prearranged, ~~prearranged~~.

MADISON
 (reacts, puzzled)
~~What do you mean?~~
 Huh? What do you mean?

BRIN (dull toned)
 I mean that I am an officer in the Red Army. I take orders.
 (meets his eyes)
 I was told to... to "run into you."

MADISON
 (careful now)
 Oh? What's this all ~~about~~ about, Nik?

BRIN
 Your transfer back to New York is not routine. The back and shoulder wounds you received during the war have become more and more troublesome. You have considered retirement. This transfer is just the first step.

Madison has reacted in wonder to this knowledge.

MADISON
 Who told you that?

BRIN Supporting a widowed sister and her two children has not enabled you to save any money.
 You are worried about money, particularly if you are forced to retire.

Madison has become very quiet in his resentment.
 Brin ~~understands~~ nods his understanding of Madison's feelings.

BRIN
 (con't)
 My superiors have told me these things about you and more. Your duties in New York will concern liason between military, naval and air defenses of the Northeastern American coast.

MADISON
(coldly)
Your spies are very thorough, Major.

He moves as if to get up, but Brin puts a hand on his arm.

BRIN
I could be court-martialed for telling you these things the way I have.

Madison realizes this is true. Retains seat.

MADISON
Why did you?

BRIN
BSEZMNSXZXENESZKAXZKONISZXZITXIXZ
EIXXNEXYZHZESEVLEEXESENEXZMNHX
SUXZLXZKXAFXTXZKONZAZKXNAXXNAXX
EZXZKZXONZKONZKONZKONZKONZKONZKONZ KONZKONZKONZKONZKONZKONZKONZKONZ

BRIN Because I don't know how else to talk to an old friend I admire and respect.

MADISON
Never mind that. What do you want?

BRIN
I want to be very drunk and not have to worry about my wife and son in Leningrad. But I have no choice.

(heavy sigh)
My friend, I have to ~~ask you~~ ~~how much~~ offer you ten thousand dollars.

MADISON
For what?

BRIN
I think you know. For secret military information that your job will make available to you.

Madison, though he anticipated as much, furrows his brow in a painful ~~an~~ frown.

BRIN

(con't/forestalls reply)
Don't tell me No, or even Yes.
Think it over or forget about it, whatever you wish, but don't decide now.

MADISON do

How will you know what I/decide?

BRIN

At 4 PM, ~~22x25th~~ on Oct. 15th, a man will be in front of the Modern Museum of Art in Manhattan.
If you are there, he will say,
"Didn't I meet you at Spechstrasse, Col.?" You should then reply,
Oh yes, I have lived at Spechstrasse 19."

MADISON

If I am there.

shrugs,

Brin ~~shrugs~~ then bolts down the remains of his drink and stands. Holds Madison's eyes a moment.

BRIN

Forgive me.

He turns abruptly and quickly crosses away.

MED. CLOSE MADISON

Digesting what has happened. Jaw sets. WIDEN ANGLE as he suddenly slaps the table and stands to cross away.

EXT: HOTEL ENTRANCE

NIGHT

Madison comes out, putting a cigarette to his lips. Lights it and turns down the street.
TRUCK WITH HIM until he passes parked sedan ~~xxxxxx~~ in F.G. Madison continues on, but we ~~xxx~~ HOLD ON parked sedan. Two figures lean forward from the darkened rear seat, looking after Madison. One is Brin; the other a plainclothes Russian agent.

BRIN

Well, at least he did not go straight to the telephone?

RUSSIAN AGENT

(accent)

Do you think he will cooperate?

BRIN

Possibly. We know how badly he needs the money.

(smile)

When I told him that nonsense about worrying about a wife and son in Leningrad, I think the old fool actually felt sorry for me.

They exchange a smile.

~~DISSOLVE~~

STRAIGHT CUT:

INT: GENERAL'S OFFICE

DAY

MED. CLOSE OF a MAJOR-GENERAL in his late fifties.

GENERAL

Why did you wait until this morning to tell me this?

MED. MADISON

Seated in front of General's desk.

MADISON

I took it for granted I'd be followed home. Also, the way they plan things, I couldn't take the chance my phone was tapped.

ANOTHER ANGLE

A 35-year-old CAPTAIN stands beside the General's desk.

~~XXXXXXXX~~

GENERAL

Maybe. Of course, they had to risk the possibility that you would report them.

CAPTAIN

Not much risk, General. They have everything to gain if ~~the~~ Col. Madison plays ball, nothing to lose if he doesn't. We can't touch them, and diplomatic protests roll off their backs like water.

~~GENERAL~~

MADISON

Capt., I thought if I pretended to go along, your security men could be around when I passed them some classified information.

CAPTAIN

Yes sir, except they haven't asked for anything here in Berlin. In fact, you wouldn't know where to contact them if you wanted to.

Madison and the General exchange a glance, realizing this is true.

~~XXXXXXXXX~~

~~XXXXXXXX~~

~~XXXXXXXXX~~

GENERAL

Is that all you've got to say?

CAPTAIN

No sir. The place to get them is in the states, in New York. If Col. Madison is willing to cooperate.

They look at Madison who is uncertain but willing.

MADISON

Never considered myself a spy or anything like that, but...
(to Capt.)

What do you want me to do?

CAPTAIN
Not me, sir. The FBI.

Madison reacts.

DISSOLVE:

EXT: FBI HDQS. WASH D.C. (STOCK) DAY

To ESTABLISH...

WEBB'S VOICE
Washington, D. C. The central Headquarters Building of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

WIPE TO:

INT: FBI OFFICE (WASH) DAY

TOWARD DOOR as MICHEAL ADDIS, 37, enters. PAN him to desk where JOHN CORBIN, 46, rises to shake Mike's hand. They sit down. Discuss the case.

WEBB'S VOICE special agent in charge of the ~~FBI agent Micheal Addis, was summoned~~
~~from the New York area as soon as was summoned to~~ Wash. as soon as the situation was replayed from Berlin. As the proposed communist rendezvous was to take place in New York, it would ~~fall under his~~ come under his ~~addition to responsibility jurisdiction.~~
His immediate superior, ~~Agent in Charge~~ Asst. Director John Corbin, had already conferred with aides to J. Edgar Hoover.

CORBIN
We don't want a messenger boy, Mike.
We want to get the bigwigs behind this even if it takes us into the Russian embassy.

~~XXXXXX~~ ~~XXXXXXXXX~~

Corbin reacts with some surprise as Mike rises.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Mike paces slightly to help his thought process.

MIKE

From what you told me on the phone, the only one who came close to Madison was this Red Army officer, this...

(searches for name)

CORBIN

Major Brin.

MIKE

Right. The chances are, somebody else will be meeting the Colonel in front of the museum. Someone the colonel hasn't seen before, ^{seen} and who hasn't the colonel before, except maybe for a picture like this.

Has indicated the file. Corbin examines the idea.

CORBIN

We could get confirmation as to whether or not Brin is still in Europe.

MIKE

Yes sir. If we could find an agent with the same general build and complexion as Col. Madisonxxx, ~~can~~ makeup expert could take it from there.

~~XX~~

CORBIN

(a beat)

A longshot, Mike. Not much chance.

MIKE

What are our chances with Col. Madison's playacting?

Corbin weighs the alternatives, then flicks an intercom switch.

CORBIN

Helen, I want a computer made available ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ immediately.

STRAIGHT CUT:

INSERT COMPUTER

To SHOW its complex mechanism in operation. ~~xxxx~~ ~~xxx~~ Information is being fed onto tapes.

WEBB'S VOICE

An exact description of Col.
Harvey Madison was fed into a computer: his height, weight, age, color of hair and eyes, complexion.

WIPE TO:

INSERT COMPUTER CARD SLOTS

Stacked cards are being riffled, several falling into vertical slots.

WEBB'S VOICE

Then ~~xxx~~ coded, personnel cards, each representing an FBI agent, was run through the computer....

WIPE TO:

INSERT CLOSER ANGLE CARD SLOTS

Only one falls into a slot.

WEBB'S VOICE

...until the single card most similar to Madison's description was isolated.

Corbin's hand takes a card.

INSERT CARD IN CORBIN'S HAND

The name reads: Goodwin, Jack. W.

WEBB'S VOICE

Agent Jack W. Goodwin, attached to the FBI field office in Denver, Colorado.

STRAIGHT CUT:

INT: MAKEUP ROOM

DAY

CLOSE OF JACK GOODWIN, 42, a reasonable, but younger facsimile of Madison.

GOODWIN

(wry smile)

If you want to know the truth, I resent being picked as the double of a man fifteen years older than ~~that~~ I am.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Goodwin and Mike are in the makeup room. There are mirrors rimmed with fluorescent light, a barber's chair, all sorts of jars and brushes, etc.

MIKE

~~Well, we'd really prefer to use the Colonel's twin brother, but he just doesn't happen to have one, so you'll have to do.~~

Well, we'd really prefer to use the Colonel's twin brother, but he just doesn't happen to have one, so you'll have to do.

(beat)

Of course, you may get older in a hurry before we close the file on this one.

Goodwin reacts. Then they turn to the door.

ANOTHER ANGLE

TONY DONALDSON, late forties, distinguishedly grey, has entered. He wears a white smock and carries a cardboard folder under his arm.

MIKE

Hello Tony. Jack Goodwin, Tony Donaldson.

(to Goodwin)

Tony's going to handle the makeup.

(to Tony)

Only it can't look like makeup, even to a trained eye. What do you think?

Tony has been studying Goodwin's face. Shrugs slightly, opens the folder.

ANOTHER ANGLE

The folder contains three 8 x 11 photographs of Madison: straight on, and one of each profile.

TONY

We're all right on coloring. Have to match haircuts. Thicken up his eyebrows, maybe slim the nose line...

(looks at Mike)

~~How much time have I got to~~ We can try.

MIKE

~~What's the contact hasn't met~~

~~you before, he won't know your voice.~~

~~You can play safe by faking a horse~~

~~her throat.~~

~~How much time have I got to~~

GOODWIN

How about a voice match?

MIKE

If the contact ~~hasn't met~~ you before, he won't know your voice.

You can play safe by faking a horse ~~her~~ throat.

TONY

How much time have I got to experiment?

MIKE

The Colonel arrives in a week. Two weeks after that Jack here has to take his place.

Tony nods, indicates the barber chair for Goodwin.
Goodwin sits down. Mike crosses to door.

AT DOOR - INTERCUT

Mike stops there, looks back.

MIKE

Tony?

(gets their attention)

If they spot Jack for a ringer, we don't just lose the ballgame.
We might lose him.

~~XX~~
Tony has tied a protective sheet around Goodwin's neck, to protect the latter's clothes; he has a jar of cold cream in his hand. Tony reacts.

MIKE

(con't)

Jack already knows that much.
Just thought I'd tell you.

TONY

(sour expression)

Thanks a ~~xxxx~~ lot.

He punctuates that by slapping a wad of cold cream against Goodwin's cheek.

DISSOLVE:

~~EXTXZXAIRPORTTXZXSTOCK~~

EXT: IDLEWILD AIRPORT (STOCK)

DAY

A four-jet, commercial airliner comes in for landing.

WEBB'S VOICE

The following week, Col. Harvey
Madison arrived in New York.

EXT: IDLEWIDD AIRPORT (STOCK

DAY

Passengers debarking jetliner.

WEBB'S VOICE

After being greeted by family and friends,.....

INT: ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ N. Y. APT.

DAY

TOWARD DOOR as it opens and Madison enters, removing key from door. He has two bulky bags.

WEBB'S VOICE

...he went straight to a furnished apartment in midtown Manhattan which he had ostensibly sub-~~leased~~ leased from a fellow officer.

ANOTHER ANGLE

close

As he ~~opens~~ the door and turns into the well-appointed room, he suddenly reacts as Mike comes out of the bedroom. Mike crosses, hand extended.

MIKE

Col. Madison, I'm Mike Addis, FBI.

MADISON

(over handshake)

Oh yes, they told me...but I didn't expect...

MIKE

You might have been followed from the airport. They couldn't know you were coming here, so they couldn't know we'd be here.

MADISON

We?

MIKE

(turns) Jack?

ANOTHER ANGLE

Jack Goodwin comes out of the bedroom, but he is barely recognizable from the man we saw. His resemblance to Madison, uniform and all, is eerie.

MIKE

Col. Madison, this is Agent Jack Goodwin.

MADISON

(reacts)

It's...incredible!

GOODWIN

Your shock is reassuring, Colonel. I hope you don't mind if I stare at you from time to time. Just trying to pick up your mannerisms.

MIKE

(to Madison)

And if you've forgotten anything about your own background, friends, school, relatives, jobs, just ask Jack here. He can give it to you backwards.

MIKE
 Galt Madison, this is Agent Jack Goodwin.

MADISON (stunned)
 It's... it's incredible!

GOODWIN
 Your shock is a little reassuring, Colonel. Please don't feel uncomfortable if you find me staring at you from time to time.
 Any of your mannerisms that I can pick up will help.

The PHONE RINGS. Madison doesn't react until Mike gestures for him to answer.

MADISON
 Yes... Oh, one moment.
 (turns to Mike)
 It's for you.

Mike nods and takes the phone.

MIKE Hello.
 (then) Fine. You know what to do.
 (hangs up; to Madison)
 You were followed.

MADISON
 (reacts)
 I had no idea... Do ~~xxx~~ they have the man?

MIKE
 It was a woman. No, one cheap arrest now and they'll avoid you like the plague. We'll let her lead us around town and, hopefully, introduce us to some of her friends.

MADISON
 I see... But you can't be sure she was the only one.

MIKE
 We're sure she's not.

MADISON

But then...how will you leave?

MIKE

I've rented another apartment in the building. Under the name of Williams. Jack will remain here with you.

MADISON

Here?

MIKE

For safety, and maybe a little salesmanship on his disguise. You will go to your office and to a few, limited social activities. On occasion, Jack will go out for a walk, buy a newspaper, go to a nearby restaurant. Just so they can see him as you. One of you must remain hidden in this apartment at all times.

GOODWIN

(over Madison's reaction)

By hidden he means when one of us is out, there must be no lights on in the apartment, no TV or radio, and no answering the telephone.

MADISON

(impressed)

You're remarkably thorough.

MIKE

So are they.

Madison reacts.

DISSOLVE:

EXT: APT. BLDG. ENTRANCE DAY

Madison comes out of the bldg., waves for a cab, then crosses to get into one.

WEBB'S VOICE
The masquarade began the next morning when Col. Madison left for his office.

INT: N. Y. APT. DAY

Goodwin stands beside a window, looking down.

WEBB'S VOICE
While Agent Jack Goodwin prepared to spend a silent day alone, not daring even to pass an open window.

Goodwin crouches below window level in order to cross to the bedroom.

WIPE:

EXT: MYXXX APT. BLDG. NIGHT

Goodwin, as Madison, comes out of the bldg and crosses to intercept a newsboy. He buys a paper, pauses to leaf through it.

WEBB'S VOICE
In the evening, the situation was reversed.

INT: N. Y. APT. NIGHT

Now it is Madison alone in the darkened apt.
~~puffing pipe~~ He has a pipe and prepares to light a match, then ~~glances at~~ remembers security, and puts the pipe on an end table.

WEBB'S VOICE
A half life for each man. But no complaints. Both men had long ago sworn to serve their country in any way demanded of them.

DISSOLVE:

EXT: MUSEUM OF MODERN ART (STOCK)

DAY

To ESTABLISH...

WEBB'S VOICE

New York's Museum of Modern Art.
October 15th, 1954.

EXT: MUSEUM (NY STREET)

DAY

Goodwin, disguised as Madison, comes TOWARD CAMERA, stopping in MED. to look around. He glances at his watch.

WEBB'S VOICE

At ~~four~~ four P.M. that afternoon, Agent Jack Goodwin came to ~~see~~ keep the rendezvous arranged for Col. Madison two months earlier in Berlin. He glanced at his watch frequently, pretended to be more nervous than he really was, and searched the face of each passorby. The one place he did not ~~didn't~~ look was at the brownstone...

EXT: BROWNSTONE (STOCK)

DAY

To ESTABLISH. (MOVE IN OPTICALLY IF POSSIBLE).

WEBB'S VOICE

... across the street.

INT: ROOM IN BROWNSTONE

DAY

Mike ~~Goodwin~~ and and a younger agent, ~~LARRY LARRY~~ LARRY, ~~BARTELEY~~ sip coffee from cartons as they watch through the linen drapes over a window. Behind them, a TECHNICIAN, adjusts the focus on a camera

MIKE

They could just be waiting to see if ~~Maxximus~~ the Colonel shows up at ~~at~~ all, then contact him later.

Larry nods, keeping his eyes on the window.

LARRY

Yeah. You know what I keep hoping at times like this? That it'll be a Russian, Not an american like that gal who tailed him from the airport.

Mike reacts to what he sees thru the window.

MIKE

~~Think~~ We've got a nibble.

EXT: MUSEUM

DAY

A middleaged man (KARTYNOV), wearing foreign-cut clothes, has stopped a few yards from Goodwin. He glances at his watch, then at Goodwin, then casts an idle glance around. Goodwin makes a point of trying not to stare at the man...playing the nervous amateur.

ANOTHER ANGLE

MOVE INTO TWO SHOT as Kartynov crosses to Goodwin.

KARTYNOV

(accent)

Pardon me, sir. It seems to me that we once met at Spechstrasse.

GOODWIN

(stiffly)

Oh yes, I have lived there. At Spechstrasse 19.

Kartynov smiles and extends his hand. Goodwin shakes hands.

INT: BROWNSTONE ROOM

DAY

The technician has moved up to focus his camera.

MIKE

Never mind, Joe. We've already got a gallery on that joker.
~~Name's Maksim Kartynov, part of the Soviet team in the United Nations Military Staff Committee.~~
 Name's Maksim Kartynov, part of the Soviet team in the United Nations Military Staff Committee.

LARRY

That give him diplomatic immunity?

Mike nods.

MIKE

(no's)

All we can do is boot him out of the country for keeps. But he probably has a few local buddies I'd like to know about.

EXT: MUSEUM

DAY

Goodwin and Kartynov are talking.

WEBB'S VOICE

The Soviet agent suggested a walk through Central Park, but Jack Goodwin wanted to stay where his fellow FBI men could observe everything that went on. Goodwin also

WEBB'S VOICE

The Soviet agent suggested they continue their conversations while they took an automobile ride through Manhattan. But Goodwin wanted to remain where his fellow FBI men could observe every action. They agreed to a walk through Central Park. Goodwin also wanted to know how severely his disguise would be tested.

GOODWIN

Will we be meeting any of our mutual friends from Berlin?

KARTYNOV

No, their work is done. Your business will be with me.

As he says this, Kartynov says this, he withdraws a bulky white envelope and hands it to Goodwin.

GOODWIN

How much?

KARTYNOV

As they say in your country, a reasonable down payment.

(beat)

Shall we go?

They turn and start away.

INT: BROWNSTONE ROOM

DAY

Mike and Larry at window. They turn away.

MIKE

Okay Larry, it's all yours.

LARRY

(starts for door)

Where will you be?

MIKE

MIKE I want
At the State Dept. office. ~~looking~~ them in on what's happening so that when we're ready, they can boot Kartynov out of the country.

Larry nods and exits.

DISSOLVE:

INT: N. Y. APT.

NIGHT

CLOSE ON the white envelope as one end is torn off and a thick stack of greenbacks is removed.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Mike handles the envelope and counts the money.
Watching are Goodwin and Madison.

MIKE

Two-hundred and fifty dollars in fives and tens.

COONKX MADISON

89841234567891011121314151617181920212223242526272829303132333435363738394041424344454647484950515253545556575859606162636465666768697071727374757677787980818283848586878889909192939495969798990001021031041051061071081091101111121131141151161171181191201211221231241251261271281291301311321331341351361371381391401411421431441451461471481491501511521531541551561571581591601611621631641651661671681691701711721731741751761771781791801811821831841851861871881891901911921931941951961971981992002012022032042052062072082092102112122132142152162172182192202212222232242252262272282292302312322332342352362372382392402412422432442452462472482492502512522532542552562572582592602612622632642652662672682692702712722732742752762772782792802812822832842852862872882892902912922932942952962972982993003013023033043053063073083093103113123133143153163173183193203213223233243253263273283293303313323333343353363373383393403413423433443453463473483493503513523533543553563573583593603613623633643653663673683693703713723733743753763773783793803813823833843853863873883893903913923933943953963973983994004014024034044054064074084094104114124134144154164174184194204214224234244254264274284294304314324334344354364374384394404414424434444454464474484494504514524534544554564574584594604614624634644654664674684694704714724734744754764774784794804814824834844854864874884894904914924934944954964974984995005015025035045055065075085095105115125135145155165175185195205215225235245255265275285295305315325335345355365375385395405415425435445455465475485495505515525535545555565575585595605615625635645655665675685695705715725735745755765775785795805815825835845855865875885895905915925935945955965975985996006016026036046056066076086096106116126136146156166176186196206216226236246256266276286296306316326336346356366376386396406416426436446456466476486496506516526536546556566576586596606616626636646656666676686696706716726736746756766776786796806816826836846856866876886896906916926936946956966976986997007017027037047057067077087097107117127137147157167177187197207217227237247257267277287297307317327337347357367377387397407417427437447457467477487497507517527537547557567577587597607617627637647657667677687697707717727737747757767777787797807817827837847857867877887897907917927937947957967977987998008018028038048058068078088098108118128138148158168178188198208218228238248258268278288298308318328338348358368378388398408418428438448458468478488498508518528538548558568578588598608618628638648658668678688698708718728738748758768778788798808818828838848858868878888898908918928938948958968978988999009019029039049059069079089099109119129139149159169179189199209219229239249259269279289299309319329339349359369379389399409419429439449459469479489499509519529539549559569579589599609619629639649659669679689699709719729739749759769779789799809819829839849859869879889899909919929939949959969979989991000100110021003100410051006100710081009101010111012101310141015101610171018101910201021102210231024102510261027102810291030103110321033103410351036103710381039104010411042104310441045104610471048104910501051105210531054105510561057105810591060106110621063106410651066106710681069107010711072107310741075107610771078107910801081108210831084108510861087108810891090109110921093109410951096109710981099110011011102110311041105110611071108110911101111111211131114111511161117111811191120112111221123112411251126112711281129113011311132113311341135113611371138113911401141114211431144114511461147114811491150115111521153115411551156115711581159116011611162116311641165116611671168116911701171117211731174117511761177117811791180118111821183118411851186118711881189119011911192119311941195119611971198119912001201120212031204120512061207120812091210121112121213121412151216121712181219122012211222122312241225122612271228122912301231123212331234123512361237123812391240124112421243124412451246124712481249125012511252125312541255125612571258125912601261126212631264126512661267126812691270127112721273127412751276127712781279128012811282128312841285128612871288128912901291129212931294129512961297129812991

MIKE

Two-and-a-half percent is their idea of ~~the~~ reasonable.

GOODWIN

I think it's just a pat on the head because I...or rather because you showed up. All I told them is what information is available to Col. Madison, which they probably know anyway. I figured they expected me to play horse-trader so I did.

MIKE

What do they want?

GOODWIN

The whole works. A map pinpointing ground-to-air missile installations. Also a list of primary targets against which we'd retaliate in case of attack.

Mike nods, then smiles.

MIKE

You know, counter-espionage may turn out to be our greatest deterrent against nuclear war.

MADISON

What do you mean?

MIKE

Well, we'll give them a map with so many installations and targets, all false of course, that they'll probably junk all their military timetables, ~~and will be at Geneva~~

GOODWIN

In other words, when I meet Kartynov next week, we don't grab him.

MIKE

Not until he's had a chance to send our phony information to Moscow. Then we'll make it look like we caught him on something else.

MADISON

I'm sure you gentlemen know what you're doing, but...won't they check anything you give them against their previous intelligence?

MIKE

Yes. And hopefully be confused, not knowing what to believe.

MADISON

Confused yes, but most likely suspicious too. Especially of Mr.
Goodwin here.

Mike and Goodwin exchange a glance.

MIKE

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

MADISON

(con't)

I mean, the longer you continue this after Mr. Goodwin gives them false information, the more his position becomes...well, Hazardous?

MIKE

(long beat)

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

That's another reason we had Jack take your place, Colonel.
He knows what you're saying;
he's known it all along.

Madison looks at Goodwin. The latter shrugs.

GOODWIN

Not a matter of being a hero, really. We try not to take unnecessary chances, but there are chances...

(pause)

Mike here's taken his share of them.

MIKE

You're a soldier, Col. Would you try to win a war by playing it safe?

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Goodwin nods heavily, appreciating the analogy.

DISSOLVE:

INT: COCKTAIL LOUNGE (REDRESS EARLIER SET) DAY

OPEN CLOSE ON a briefcase in a man's hand. PAN TO WIDER ANGLE as Goodwin, still disguised as Madison, crosses to a booth where Kartynov sits. The latter rises with a broad smile, shakes Goodwin's hand. They move to sit opposite each other.

WEBB'S VOICE

One week later, ~~Agent~~ Jack Goodwin, still posing as Col. Madison, kept his second rendezvous with the Russian agent.

TWO SHOT BOOTH

Goodwin has placed the briefcase on the table, but rests one hand on it. Kartynov is obviously interested in the briefcase. A waitress comes to the table and they order, then continue their discussion.

~~WEBB'S VOICE~~

WEBB'S VOICE

Goodwin's briefcase captured the Russian's attention as it was meant to. The FBI wanted him tempted enough to make a mistake.

Kartynov reaches for the ~~briefcase~~ briefcase.
~~Kartynov reaches for the briefcase.~~
~~Kartynov reaches for the briefcase.~~

KARTYNOV

You have all the information?

Goodwin's hand presses down more firmly on the briefcase, not permitting Kartynov to take it.

GOODWIN

You won't be disappointed. But...
(beat)

Shouldn't you have something for me first?

KARTYNOV

Of course, after I have seen that...

GOODWIN

(interrupts)

Before. I wasn't exactly pleased by your "reasonable down payment."

Kartynov shows his annoyance, reaches inside his jacket, but stops abruptly as the waitress brings their drinks. They ~~wt~~ wait silently until she leaves. Kartynov then withdraws an envelope and slides it under his hand across the table. Goodwin takes it, rips off one end. Kartynov is alarmed.

Kartynov shows some annoyance, but then withdraws and envelope and slides it to Goodwin. The latter plants one unceremonious elbow on the briefcase as he tears open the envelope. Kartynov is alarmed.

KARTYNOV

You're not going to do that here!

GOODWIN

Oh stop behaving like an old movie. Nobody knows who we are or why we're here.

Has ripped end off envelope. Examines contents inside. Kartynov sweats, glances around nervously. Goodwin, apparently satisfied, pockets the envelope, to the Russian's relief.

GOODWIN

(con't)

Fine.

(about briefcase)

Now: where can we have these documents copied?

KARTYNOV

(on guard)

What do you mean? You're supposed to turn the information over to me. That was the agreement.

GOODWIN

The information, yes. Not the actual documents. These papers have to be returned to their files in the morning.

KARTYNOV

That's impossible!

GOODWIN

Impossible? Anything else is stupid. Did you expect me to copy everything by hand? Or hire a typist? These are top secret papers. If they're found missing, there'll ~~be~~ be an investigation. If they ~~even~~ find me out...well, I'm sure you wouldn't want that.

The Russian is frustrated, uncertain. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

KARTYNOV
 No, no, of course not.
 (beat)

We were not prepared for such a situation.

GOODWIN
 (glances at watch)
 Well, you have several hours

KARTYNOV
 We could return the papers to you first thing in the morning.

GOODWIN
 Unless for some reason you couldn't, or wouldn't.

(leans close, whispers)
 All you've got to lose are your political credentials. I'm risking my career, possibly even my life.

(sits back)
 I will not let these documents out of my sight. That's final.

KARTYNOV
 Very well. I will arrange something for this evening.

Goodwin nods, lifts his drink, inclining it toward Kartynov in a silent toast. The Russian takes his drink.

ALICE'S VOICE
 Uncle Harvey!

CLOSE GOODWIN

Shock reaction.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Alice McHenry has come to their table, smiling at Goodwin. He and Kartynov stand. Her initial familiarity now disappears as she looks at Goodwin.

ALICE
 Oh excuse me, I thought you were...

GOODWIN

(interrupting)

No, no, not at all my dear.

(then)

Mr. Kartynov, my neice Miss McHenry.

Alice throws him a puzzled glance, then shakes Kartynov's extended hand.

ALICE

How do you do?

KARTYNOV

Charmed, Miss ~~McHenry~~ McHenry.

GOODWIN

Won't you join us, dear. We were just talking about favorite places in Europe.

She is on guard now, but trying to cover it.

ALICE

Uh, no. No, thank you. I really... Actually, I have to meet someone downtown.

KARTYNOV

Another time, I would hope?

GOODWIN

A shame. I'll call you this evening.

ALICE

Yes, do that,
(to Kartynov)

Nice meeting you, sir.

Kartynov shakes her hand again and inclines a nod.

ALICE

(con't)

Uncle Harvey.

Goodwin ~~is~~ throws her a casual kiss. Alice turns to cross OFF. The men ~~again~~ resume their seats.

TWO SHOT

GOODWIN

Lovely girl. ~~My dear~~

KARTYNOV

Yes, of course. I shall have to make some telephone calls. Will you wait here?

Goodwin nods and picks up his drink. Kartynov rises to cross AWAY.

CLOSE GOODWIN

Emits an unguarded sigh of tension.

DISSOLVE:

EXT: LOWER EAST SIDE (STOCK)

NIGHT

To ESTABLISH...

WEBB'S VOICE

Manhattan's lower East Side.
Kartynov's phone calls produced exactly what the FBI had hoped for:

INT: EAST SIDE APT. (TENEMENT)

NIGHT

CLOSE ON the briefcase being unzipped. PULL BACK TO REVEAL Goodwin passing the contents to two other men that stand beside Kartynov; FARLEY, a sandy-haired young man, and LINSKY, a burly, Russian contemporary of Kartynov.

WEBB'S VOICE

Exposure of two high echelon figures in the main espionage network,
WALLACE FARLEY (SECRETARY) and JOSEF LINSKY, American-born radio commentator, and JOSEF LINSKY, a naturalized citizen in the building trades.

They cross with the documents to a technician who stands beside a specially lighted table, above which is a fixed camera for photographic copying. He takes the documents, begins to mount them. ~~THEY~~

WEBB'S VOICE

Linsky glances toward the window, then crosses to pull down the shade.

EXT: WINDOW

NIGHT

LOW ANGLE UP ON window as the shade comes down.

EXT: PARKED CAR IN STREET

NIGHT

Mike, in the rear seat, and Larry, behind the wheel, look up at the window o.s.

WEBB'S VOICE

And the tenement apartment itself which was undoubtedly a clearing house for secret information that had to be microfilmed or otherwise disguised for travel overseas.

DISSOLVE:

INT: MAKEUP ROOM

NIGHT

Mike sits on the dressing table, one foot up on a straight chair. The door to a bathroom opens and Goodwin comes out in a terrycloth robe, massaging a towel over his face and hair. He is without makeup.

GOODWIN

Man, Tony must be put that goo on with cement. After forty-eight hours, I can't tell where the Colonel ends and I begin.

(grins)

But you've got to hand it to the ^{Tony} guy. When the Colonel's niece showed up, I tell you my adam's-apple froze at half-mast. But she looked me right in the ~~face~~ ^{eye} and ~~she~~ said "Uncle Harvey."

MIKE

Thinking of going into show business?

GOODWIN

You've got to admit that was the acid test.

GOODWIN

Listen I went blank. Then that briefing on the Colonel's family paid off. I remembered her picture, then her name.

(grins)

If I wanted to show off, I think I ~~could've~~ could've bounced her on my knee.

MIKE

(drily)

That right?

Mike flatly

Then he crosses to ~~xxxxxx~~ open the door.

ANOTHER ANGLE

MIKE
 (to o.s.)
 Miss McHenry?

Goodwin reacts. Then Alice enters, stares at Goodwin.

MIKE (smiling) Alice McHenry... Jack Goodwin.

GOODWIN
 How do...uh, I... you knew?

MIKE
 Almost immediately. But she didn't know why a man pretending to be her uncle should be ~~xxxxxx~~ having a clandestine meeting with a Russian official. So she told the police. They came to us.

ALICE
 Of course my first concern was that something had happened to my uncle.

GOODWIN
 (deflated)
 Well anyway, thanks for not screaming.

ALICE
 (smiles)
 It's remarkable. You're really a young man.

GOODWIN
~~This is nothing.~~ You should've seen me before this job started.

Mike and Alice smile.

DISSOLVE:

INT: NY APT.

NIGHT

OPEN ON a small, table Christmas Tree in front of a window. It is trimmed and lighted. PULL BACK SLOWLY TO THREE SHOT OF Madison, Goodwin (in makeup) and Mike having a careful discussion.

WEBB'S VOICE

Three days before Christmas, Col. Madison received a call from Kartynov demanding another meeting. It had been expected. Even though the information delivered to the communists had been false, certain specifics had been deliberately left out to force another contact.

MIKE

We have to take him into custody, but not you.

MADISON

Won't that be strange? I mean, there are obviously two parties to this crime.

MIKE

That's the tricky part. We're not going to pick Kartynov and his friends up for this crime.

(crosses to pace)

They were in business before you came along. We round them up at the same time...

(to Goodwin)

...the exact time you meet Kartynov. Then we interrogate them separately. We know they'll start lying and lies have a way of contradicting each other. One slip and they'll all come apart like a house of cards.

MADISON

I don't see why you have to go to all that trouble when you know they've been trying to deal with me.

MIKE

Because we want you to, quote: "get away." If you wish, to play another day.

GOODWIN

Right now, Col., the commies think you're ~~easy~~ easy pickings. If they lose these agents, they've got more. Six months from now, a year, you might get a call from the man who replaces Kartynov.

MADISON

(reacts)

Are you saying we might have to go through all this again?

Mike and Goodwin ~~examine~~ exchange a glance.

MIKE

All we're saying, Col. Madison, is that we'll probably get another opportunity. Whether or not we take advantage of it is, naturally, up to you.

MADISON

I see.

(beat)

I can't say I'm ~~amazed~~ delighted at the prospect of making this a way of life.

GOODWIN

No sir. ^{neither} am I. But I also don't like what the Communists have in mind for us as a way of life.

Madison reacts as the point scores. Looks at both men.

MADISON

(softly)

Amen.

DISSOLVE:

EXT: NY STREET

DAY

Goodwin, as Madison, stands at the curb. A sedan driven by Kartynov pulls up alongside. Goodwin gets in.

WEBB'S VOICE

The next morning, Jack Goodwin met Kartynov on a designated street corner. The FBI agent carried no papers this time. Nothing that could incriminate him.

The car drives off. Turns a corner.

~~WIKKZX~~~~EXTXZXZNEWZXDRKXZEXKEXZEZXZSTOCKZXZXZXZXZDAXZ~~~~TXZESTABZISHZXZX~~~~WEBBZXOXCEZ~~

EXT: ANOTHER STREET

DAY

As the car comes around the corner, another sedan coming from the oppsite direction suddenly veers to block Kartynov's path.

~~EXTX~~

ANOTHER ANGLE

ON Kartynov's reaction, and Goodwin's, as the Russian jams the car to a halt.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Larry and two other agents leave the car, quickly crossing toward Kartynov's sedan. Another car comes up beside Kartynov's sedan from the rear. Mike and still another agent close in.

ANOTHER ANGLE

Mike crosses to Kartynov's side; Larry crosses to Goodwin's door. ~~They~~ Mike flips open his identification.

MIKE

FBI.

GOODWIN

What's going on here?

LARRY

Suspicion of espionage, Col.
May I see your ID?

GOODWIN

Espionage?

(reaches for wallet)

This is ridiculous! I'm Col.

Harvey Goodwin. This man is Mr. Diplomat, Mr. Kartynov, an accredited diplomatic representative of the Soviet Union. He was just driving me to my office.

Larry takes Goodwin's

MIKE identification.

MIKE

Your office is on the West side,
Col. You were driving South.

(to Kartynov)

Your papers, please.

KARTYNOV

(producing them)

You are making a serious mistake.
West, South! I have only been in this city a short time. My government will demand an apology!

MIKE

(glances at papers)

We'll be glad to give your government anything it deserves.

XXXXXX

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

LARRY

(to Goodwin; returning wallet)

Thank you, Col. I hope you understand, sir, we have no charge against you. Our evidence against Mr. Kartynov concerns his activities with other parties.

Kartynov shoots Goodwin a sharp glance.

MIKE

But just for the record, Col.,
I think you'll have to come with us.

Goodwin offers a resigned shrug as he and Kartynov are led toward Mike's car. One of the agents gets into Kartynov's car. Larry and the others cross to the former's car. PULL BACK SLOWLY as the three cars turn to move away.

WEBB'S VOICE

Goodwin offers a resigned shrug as he is led toward Larry's car. Kartynov is taken by Mike to the latter's car while one of the other agents takes over Kartynov's sedan.

WEBB'S VOICE

Jack Goodwin and the Soviet agent were taken to separate cars. They would never see each other again. Kartynov and his associates would be charged with espionage whereas a public statement of Col. Madison's innocence would appear in the papers the next day.

(beat)

The Soviet pattern for espionage had supplied us with one of our own.

The cars turn to form a procession that moves AWAY.

FADE OUT:

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Mohr

DATE: 3/25/63

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: PROPOSED SCRIPT FOR NEW FBI MOVIE

Tolson	_____
Belmont	_____
Mohr	_____
Casper	_____
Callahan	_____
Conrad	_____
DeLoach	_____
Evans	_____
Gale	_____
Rosen	_____
Sullivan	_____
Tavel	_____
Trotter	_____
Tele. Room	_____
Holmes	_____
Gandy	_____

b6
b7C

[] of my office has been in Los Angeles for the last two weeks working with Warner Brothers preparing a new movie to be used as a replacement for "A Day With The FBI."

He has submitted the attached proposed script for this movie which will be 28 minutes in duration. We have reviewed the script and, in our opinion, it is excellent and shows potential for a tremendous short movie on the FBI. Several minor suggested changes have been noted and will be passed on to []. The script has also been reviewed by Assistant Director Conrad and SA [] in the Laboratory and they have approved.

I would like to call your attention particularly to the last page (page 10) where the movie will end with a clip from the Director's speech at Valley Forge last February. The words taken from the speech are in themselves inspiring. The photography is beautiful and we feel that this ending will give a tremendous punch to the picture.

In so far as the narration for the movie is concerned and although we have had some difficulty with Jack Webb in the past, lately he has been extremely cooperative. Indicative of this is the fact that when his radio series, "Dragnet," was at the height of its popularity, he was constantly referring to policemen as "cops." When the Director publicly took a stand against calling policemen "cops," Webb wrote to the Director and ceased such terminology. He is now in charge of television for Warner Brothers. In that capacity, he has volunteered to narrate our movie. He is, of course, a tremendous personality and has an excellent style. If he should furnish narration for this movie only his voice will be used and he will receive no personal plugs whatsoever.

Enclosure

1 - Mr. DeLoach
1 - Mr. Conrad

TFM:dgs
(5)

SEE RECOMMENDATIONS NEXT PAGE.

62 APR 9 1963

DeLoach to Mohr Memo

RECOMMENDATIONS:

b6
b7C

(1) We call [] and advise him the script is satisfactory with a few minor changes.

(2) [] be advised there is no objection to Webb handling the narration.

[Handwritten signature]

[Handwritten signatures and initials: "R", "JH", "D. H.", "O.P.", "S", "K"]

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Moore

DATE: 1-6-77

FROM :

SUBJECT: "THE FBI"
GENERAL- AND TRAINING-TYPE FILM PRODUCED BY WARNER BROTHERS

Assoc. Dir. _____
Dep. AD Adm. _____
Dep. AD Inv. _____
Asst. Dir.: _____
Adm. Serv. _____
Ext. Affairs _____
Fin. & Pers. _____
Gen. Inv. _____
Ident. _____
Inspection _____ Intell. _____
Laboratory _____ Legal Coun. _____
Plan. & Eval. _____
Rec. Mgnt. _____
Spec. Inv. _____
Training _____
Telephone Rm. _____
Director Sec'y _____

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to forward for approval a script prepared by William L. Hendricks of Warner Brothers in coordination with the Research Section for a 1977 updating of the general- and training-type film entitled "The FBI" (which film was originally produced for the Bureau by Warner Brothers in 1963 and was revised by Warner Brothers in 1970), as well as to recommend approval of funds for this purpose.

SYNOPSIS:

Last October you (Mr. Moore) discussed with Warner Brothers the fact that our general- and training-type film entitled "The FBI" is outdated and requires extensive revision to have it reflect the modern FBI--including our new Academy at Quantico, our new Headquarters Building, and the like. William L. Hendricks (who produced both the original 1963 version and the 1970 updated version of this film) has worked with the Research Section in preparing the attached new script for this film. Mr. Hendricks has donated his services and will arrange for Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., to narrate the film without charge. Mr. Hendricks estimates that technical and laboratory fees for this 20-minute color film will total approximately $32,200. In order to remain within this cost figure, it will be necessary that FBI personnel (rather than a commercial filming company) take the new film footage needed to update "The FBI."

Enclosure

1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure

1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure
1 - [Redacted] - Enclosure

GWG:slr (15)

CONTINUED - OVER

5010-108

Buy U.S. Savings Bonds Regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan

FBI/DOJ

Monroe to Moore memo
RE: "THE FBI"

RECOMMENDATION:

(1) That the attached script for a 1977 updating of "The FBI" film (to be retitled "Your FBI") be approved.

(2) That approval be granted for the expenditure of a maximum of $32,200 to cover technical and laboratory costs for the updating of this film. (As noted above, in order to maintain this cost, it will be necessary that new film footage required for updating purposes be taken and supplied to Mr. Hendricks by the Bureau.)

DETAILS:

APPROVED:	Adm. Serv.....	Legal Coun.....
	Ext. Affairs.....	Plan. & Insp.....
Director.....	Fin. & Pers.....	Rec. Mgt.....
Assoc. Dir.....	Gen. Inv.....	S. & T. Serv.....
Dep. AD Adm.....	Ident.....	Spec. Inv.....
Dep. AD Inv.....	Intell.....	Training.....

"The FBI" is a color film narrated by Jack Webb and Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., which was produced by Warner Brothers. It originally was produced in 1963 by Mr. William L. Hendricks of Warner Brothers and was revised by him in 1970. It is a general documentary-type film about the Bureau which has extensively been used for training purposes, as well as for exhibition to civic organizations, school groups, and the general public. It is the only film we have which serves so broad a purpose.

The current (1970) version of "The FBI" film is 15 minutes in length. It, of course, contains neither narration nor film footage concerning the post-Hoover era of the Bureau, including our new Headquarters Building, the new Quantico facilities, the development of FINDER, and the like.

Last October, you discussed with Mr. Hendricks the need for "The FBI" film to be updated. Mr. Hendricks reviewed Warner Brothers' copy of the film, expressed his full agreement

Tolson ☒ Belmont ☐ Mohr ☐ Casper ☐ Callahan ☐ Conrad ☒ DeLoach ☒
 Evans ☐ Gale ☐
 Rosen ☐ Sullivan ☐ Tavel ☐ Trotter ☐
 Tele Room ☐ Holmes ☐
 Gandy ☐

Jack Webb in Shift at Warner Bros.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20 (UPI)—Jack Webb has been named executive in charge of television production for Warner Bros.

Studio president Jack L. Warner said yesterday Mr. Webb, creator of TV's "Dragnet" series, would replace William T. Orr, who moves to feature production, concentrating on high-budget films.

Mr. Warner said the shift marks the beginning of a retooling of the company's television operations "with a view to establishing Warner Bros. as Hollywood's leading maker of filmed television shows."

REC-5A

194-1-17015 A

NOT RECORDED
FEB 26 1963

The Washington Post and Times Herald ☒
 The Washington Daily News ☐
 The Evening Star ☐
 New York Herald Tribune ☐
 New York Journal-American ☐
 New York Mirror ☐
 New York Daily News ☐
 New York Post ☐
 The New York Times ☐
 The Worker ☐
 The New Leader ☐
 The Wall Street Journal ☐
 The National Observer ☐
 Date ☐

FEB 20 1963