Re WFO airtel to the Bureau, 1-8-75

Enclosed for WFO is a copy of an article captioned, "The Red Menace Continues," by JOHN D. LOFTON, JR., which appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer; a letter dated 11-11-74, from CLARENCE M. KELLEY, Director, FBI, to Mr. LOFTON; and a copy of a letter from CLARENCE M. KELLEY, Director, FBI, to Mr. JOHN D. LOFTON, JR., 7603 Erica Lane, Laurel, Maryland.

Baltimore indices contain the above references to a JOHN LOFTON.

Review of Maryland Interagency Law Enforcement System (MILES), records reveals a Maryland driver's license L135-429-135-569, for a JOHN DAVIDSON LOFTON, JR., described as a white male, 5'9", 184 pounds, born 5-26-41, residing at 7606 Wooddriff Court, Laurel, Maryland. There is no Maryland vehicle registration for Mr. LOFTON.

On 1-20-75, Chief ROBERT KAISER (NA) Laurel Police Department, Laurel, Maryland, advised that his files contain no information identifiable with a JOHN D. LOFTON, JR., at 7603 Erica Lane, Laurel, Maryland. Chief KAISER advised that to the best of his knowledge there is no address such as 7603 Erica Lane, Laurel, Maryland; however, there is much construction in this general area and the possibility exists that there is a new home being built at that address.

Review of directories failed to reveal a JOHN LOFTON in Laurel, Maryland, at either 7603 Erica Lane, or 7606 Wooddriff Court, Laurel, Maryland.

acknowledge receipt of the material and to accept any information he wished to offer. Albany should promptly provide the results of this contact to FBIHQ in a form suitable for dissemination and captioned "Visit of U. S. Mayors to the USSR, 1975; [redacted]". Advise the Bureau of your recommendations concerning any additional action considered necessary.

Information copies are being provided to Baltimore and Detroit.

NOTE:

Albany is being advised to delete the Mayor's name from the caption of its case and to title the case as indicated.

John D. Lofton, Jr., is the former editor of "Monday," a publication of the Republican National Committee, who left the committee and began writing a column which is syndicated by United Features Syndicate. He is considered a very talented newsman and has strong conservative views. He is a supporter of the FBI and has met with the Director. No investigation is considered warranted.

No investigation of [redacted] is deemed necessary at this time.

Re WFO airtel 1/8/75, and BA letter 1/29/75, captioned above.

Investigation by WFO has identified captioned subject as being identical with JOHN LOFTON, JR., Syndicated Columnist for United Features Syndicate and Editor of the Republican National Committee magazine "Monday" and "First Monday."

Inasmuch as LOFTON has been identified, his employment verified and his residence established, WFO is the opinion no further investigation is warranted at this time.
